

Making the DC area permanently restricted airspace is a wise course of action.
It is better to maintain intense security to deter terrorism.